

Ministerial Resolution No. (424) for 2005 A.D.

Dated 14/06/2005 A.D.

:Minister of Labour and Social Affairs

After reviewing Federal*Law No. (1) for 1972 A.D. regarding the ministries competencies and ministers' capacities and the amending laws thereto,
Federal*Law No. (8) for 1980 in regards to organizing the work relationships and the amending laws thereto,

*Cabinet of Ministers Resolution No. (563/1) for 2001 regarding the restructuring of the labour market,

*Cabinet of Ministers Resolution No. (7/7) for 2003 regarding the modification of the recommendation mentioned in section (4) of Cabinet of Ministers Resolution No. (563\1) for 2001, as referred to,

*Cabinet of Ministers Resolution No. (356/4) for 2005 regarding the exemption of the recruited labour in the State from the educational qualification condition, and based on what was proposed by the under-secretary of the labour sector,r, and for the public interest.

:It was decided

First article

Elimination of the requirement of obtaining a high school diploma for simple manual labour that do not require qualification, including restrictively the workers who are referred to with numbers (4,5) in the seventh cell of the decimal classification system applicable in the Arab Gulf Unified Directory for Classification and Job Description.

Second article

Workers who do not fall under the provision of the First Article are conditioned to have an educational qualification in accordance with the Arab Gulf Unified Directory for Classification and Job Description.

Third article

All of the decisions issued by the ministry and instructions contrary to the provisions of this resolution are void and null.

Fourth article

The Undersecretary of the labour sector is to execute the required amendments in the applicable database at the Ministry regarding the professions that are not consistent with the mentioned approved classification in the referred directory.

Fifth article

This resolution is applicable as of its issuance date, and shall be published in the official gazette.

Dr. Ali bin Abdullah Al-Kaabi

Minister of Labour and Social Affairs